Funeral of Ruth Romaine Green from the Home of Her Parents—Officers of Daughters of America Installed.

The funeral of Ruth Romaine Green, the 8-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Green, of 538 North Summer avenue, who was accidentally shot by her brother a few days ago, and who died at the Lackawanna hospital Saturday, was held yesterday afternoon from the parental home. The sad circumstances attending the death of the little one aroused the deepest sympathy for the afflicted parents, and as a result the home was crowded with relatives and friends who attended the funeral.

Rev. Giffin, of the Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church, had charge of the services and spoke comforting words to the afflicted parents. His remarks were followed by a quartette who beautifully rendered several sacred selections.

The casket was buried beneath flowers sent by loving friends. Willie Penning, Arthur Brock, George Abner and John Baker were the pallbearers. After the services at the house the funeral cortege moved to the Dunmore cemetery, where interment was made.

Installed Last Evening.

The new order of Daughters of America, auxiliary to the Junior Order American Mechanics, installed officers at a meeting held in Washington hall last evening. They were as follows: Council, Mrs. R. Jones; assistant council, Miss Annie Gerbig; vice council, Miss Emma Kline; assistant vice council, William Pfeiffer; secretary, Miss Bertha Jones; assistant, Henry Diller; warden, B. Christman; conductor, Miss Lettie Spencer; financial secretary, T. A. Gerbig; treasurer, Miss Kate Jones; inside sentinel, Roger Thomas; outside sentinel, Miss Sarah Proper; trustees, B. H. Christman, William Pfeiffer, Henry Diller; by-laws committee, Miss Anna Dolmetsch, Miss Sarah Gable and R. H. Jones.

There were over one hundred in attendance and judging by the good fellowship manifested this society will fill a long felt want in West Scranton.

Enterprise Lodge.

The following officers were elected by Enterprise lodge, No. 21, Loyal Knights of America, last evening: Worthy master, Robert Thomas; deputy master, W. H. Oliver; recording secretary, Joseph Oliver; assistant secretary, W. H. Evans; financial secretary, R. J. Griffiths; treasurer, W. A. Phillips; chaplain, David R. Jones; conductor, William Lake; assistant conductor, Cass Morgan; inside guard, David Anthony; outside guard, E. R. Jones; trustee, W. D. Morgan.

She Drank Iodine.

As the result of taking two ounces of tincture of iodine, Miss Nellie Britton, aged 23 years, a stenographer living at 305 Fairview avenue, lay at the point of death for two hours Sunday night and but for the prompt arrival and energetic work of Dr. Hall would have passed through death's portals.

On Sunday evening about 7 o'clock, Miss Britton and her sister, Cora, quarreled about the young man Nellie intended to marry this week. Cora strenuously objected to the union on account of the fact that the young man, Marvin G. Kromer, Jr., is five years the junior of Miss Nellie Britton.

After the quarrel Cora left the house for church and in the light of a lamp Evans was seen missing from his home for over three hours yesterday afternoon. After three hours of useless search among friends the little fellow was found on North Main avenue near the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western tracks, and when asked what he was doing he replied, "I am watching the clock Choo Choo."

His half-distracted parents welcomed his return with open arms.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Ernest Genero, a resident of 517 Breck street, was arrested on a warrant yesterday, charging him with selling liquor without a license. The evidence against him was furnished by a special detective who, when called upon to testify, could not identify the defendant. He stated that he bought and paid for drinks at 517 Breck street, but did not see Genero at the time. As there was no evidence to show that Genero owned or rented the premises, Police Magistrate Stort decided to hold his case under advisement for a few days.

The Scranton Saengerfunde will have for guests tonight the Liederkreis society and the Junger Maennerchor and the social will be held in Athletic hall on Alder street. The social, or what is known in German as a "Kommers," will be conducted entirely in German. Arthur Schmidt, a prominent member of the Liederkreis society, has been invited to act as kommers master.

Dr. Schley's Lung Healing Balm is guaranteed to cure all coughs. "No cure, no pay." For sale by all dealers.

A still alarm was sent in to the Council House company yesterday because of a blaze in the clothes closet of Mrs. Peter Foley, of 105 South Webster avenue.

The boys responded promptly and quickly had the flames under control, although the closet and much wearing apparel was destroyed. An effort was made to locate the cause of the fire but nothing satisfactory could be learned, as the owner of the premises declared her entire ignorance of how the fire could have started, no one, to her knowledge, having been near the place.

Miss Mary Wetter, of Prospect avenue, and William Elden, of Stone avenue, will be married at St. Mary's German Catholic church on Thursday morning, June 26.

Drs. D. A. Webb and M. H. Quinn, of this side, are in Philadelphia, on a professional trip.

A meeting of Comet lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held in Hartman's hall this evening.

The various aid societies of the Methodist Episcopal church will combine on July 4 and hold a patriotic cream and cake social in the church parlors. Everybody and their friends are invited to be present. Fireworks at 9 o'clock in the evening.

Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Gibbons will entertain the officers and teachers of the Sunday school at the manse on Elm street this evening.

Word has been received from George Tudge, who recently went to Washington, that through the kindness and influence of Congressman Connell he has been successful in securing a lucrative position in the navy yard at that place. He considers himself very fortunate as often applicants must wait many months before a place is found.
